Hooray for Birthdays!

Birthdays are definitely a cause for celebration, and our resident birthday parties at Eastridge Senior Living Suites are hard to top! During our birthday celebration last month, the Line Dancers of Iberia put on an incredible show for our residents. Their dancing was so much fun to watch, and we thank them for coming out to show us their moves!

Gueydan Museum Trip

Residents recently enjoyed a trip to the Gueydan Museum. Located at 212 Main Street, the Gueydan Museum is housed in a historic 1902 structure that was originally built as the Bank of Gueydan. The museum's permanent collection houses rare photographs and cultural artifacts from the Gueydan area. Also on display are a collection of French antiques which were given to the museum by descendants of the Jean Pierre Gueydan family, one of the founders of the town of Gueydan. The museum is an exceptional attraction for those interested in learning about local history. In addition to the museum's permanent collection, changing exhibits highlight area artists, craftsmen, photographers, and topics of local and historical interest. Residents and staff both had a great time learning about Gueydan's history! (Information from www.gueydanmuseum.weebly.com)
